Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Benjamin Abbott

Benj grew up in northwestern Connecticut and spent time working on his familyâ€™s farm. He graduated from Moravian College in 2015 and began his career in arboriculture. Benj has a diverse range of experience in the industry and continually expands his expertise. He joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2021 and held positions as Groundperson, Arborist Climber, and Plant Health Care Specialist prior to Arborist Representative.

Benj is backed by the diagnostic resources of the Bartlett Tree Research Laboratories, has a New Jersey pesticide applicator license, and is a ISA Certified Arborist. He is unwaveringly committed to plant health care and the preservation of nature. Benj provides sound advice and works diligently to ensure that the communities and landscapes under his care flourish.

Outside of his professional endeavors, Benj's passion for biking stands out. He participates in annual bike races and cherishes the moments he shares with his daughter, introducing her to biking trails, and the wonders of the outdoors.
