Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Pat McCann

Pat McCann was born and raised in Northern Virginia. He graduated from the University of Delaware in 2016 with a bachelor's degree in human services. After discovering his passion for trees, Pat pursued further education and graduated from Northern Virginia Community College with a degree in Horticulture Technology in 2023. Pat joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2022 and held various positions before moving into his current role as an Arborist Representative.

Pat is a certified Arborist by the International Society of Arboriculture and is also Tree Risk Assessment certified. He enjoys working with clients in the neighborhoods where he grew up and is dedicated to helping them maintain the health and beauty of their landscapes.

Pat lives in Fairfax with his fiancÃ©e, Michelle and their two cats, Pudding and Pogie. In his free time, Pat enjoys biking, reading, and spending time with his friends and family.
