Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Ramiro Contreras

Ramiro has been dedicated to the tree care industry since 2004, bringing more than 20 years of experience helping homeowners protect and enhance their landscape. He began his career as a Groundsperson and advanced into Plant Health Care Specialist, developing expertise in tree biology, pest management, and landscape health. Ramiro is a licensed Arborist Representative, Certified Treecare Safety Professional.

As a licensed Commercial Pesticide Applicator supported by Bartlett Tree Research Laboratories, he provides science-based recommendations and customized care plans to help trees and shrubs thrive. Whether diagnosing tree health issues, recommending preventive treatments, or addressing insect and disease concerns, he is committed to preserving the beauty, safety, and longevity of every landscape.

Bilingual in English and Spanish, Ramiro helps with workplace safety translation. He enjoys time with his wife and two children, NY Red Bulls Matches, and exploring the outdoors.
