Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Andrew Alldaffer

Andrew was led to arboriculture by his love of the outdoors. After receiving his associate's degree in mechanical engineering, he quickly realized he needed a profession that would allow him to be outdoors. Andrew found Bartlett Tree Experts shortly thereafter. He was most recently the Local Office Safety Coordinator and a Crew Leader in the Ashburn office.

Andrew is an ISA Certified Arborist and ISA Certified Tree Climber. He takes pride in caring for clients' properties, backed by the Bartlett Tree Research Laboratory.

Andrew enjoys spending time with his wife, two young kids, and his 100lb lap dog. In his free time, he enjoys hiking and is an avid tree climber who competes in local ISA Tree Climbing Competitions.
