Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Kristopher Johnston

Kristopher Johnston earned a Bachelor of Music in Music Education from Furman University, building strong communication and adult learning skills. After working in environmental education, he joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2024 as an Arborist Ground Person, later advancing to Field Consulting Arborist and Safety Coordinator, focusing on client care, safety, and practical tree care solutions.

Kristopher is an ISA Certified Arborist, Certified Tree Care Safety Professional (CTSP), Urban Forestry Professional (UFP), and is Tree Risk Assessment Qualified (TRAQ). He also holds a Georgia commercial pesticide applicator license. As an Arborist Representative, he delivers clear, science-based recommendations supported by Bartlett's Research Laboratories to promote long-term tree health, safety, and sustainable landscape management.

Outside of work, Kristopher enjoys gardening, participating in local music groups, and spending time outdoors with his dog, Winnie.
