SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Adam Sears

Adam Sears is a dedicated arborist with deep roots in the industry, following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather. As a third-generation arborist, Adam has cultivated a lifelong passion for trees and their health. Since joining Bartlett Tree Experts in 2012, he has embraced the company's commitment to scientific tree care, applying advanced techniques and innovative solutions to ensure that every tree he works with thrives. His dedication to excellence was recognized when he received Bartlett's Distinguished Champion Award, highlighting his outstanding contributions to tree care and client satisfaction.

With a keen eye for detail and a strong focus on customer service, Adam is devoted to providing clients with exceptional care tailored to their specific needs. He received specialized training at the F.A. Bartlett Research Lab and is a Connecticut Certified Arborist, equipping him with the knowledge to assess tree health, implement effective pruning, and manage diseases. Adam's blend of experience, knowledge, and a genuine love for the environment makes him an invaluable resource for homeowners and businesses looking to preserve and enhance their green spaces.

In his free time, Adam enjoys spending time with his family, cheering on his favorite sports teams, and competing in a local pool league.
