Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Chris Regan

Chris began his arboricultural education and career as an arborist in his native New Zealand. He moved to the United States in 2002. In 2005, after a few years as a manager at a local tree company, Chris started his own tree care business in Menlo Park. In a transition that allowed Chris to shift his focus from management to the sales side of his career, his successful company was acquired by S.P. McClenahan Company in 2014. Since then, he has been a leading Arborist Representative with the firm. Chris joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2022 as part of the acquisition of S. P. McClenahan Company.

An ISA Certified Arborist, Chris is also a Consulting Arborist and an ISA qualified Tree Risk Assessor. He provides clients with knowledge and advice to proactively maintain the health and beauty of their trees and shrubs.

Chris is a local Menlo Park resident. He likes to travel with his wife and two children and enjoys the outdoors by trail running and mountain bike riding.
