Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Erik Rodgers

Erik Rodgers grew up in Bucks County, Pennnsylvania. In 1996 Erik went to Clemson University to study landscape architecture, however, after taking some classes and working at the school's botanical gardens, he changed his major and graduated from Clemson with a Bachelor of Science in horticulture. Erik chose a career in arboriculture and worked in New Jersey, South Carolina, and Pennsylvania, before returning to Greenville in 2020. He joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2023 when Emery's Tree Service was acquired by Bartlett.

Erik is an ISA Certified Arborist. Drawing on his extensive experience and the diagnostic support of the Bartlett Tree Research Laboratories, Erik and his team answer property owners' questions and provide sound recommendations to keep their landscapes safe, healthy, and beautiful.

In his free time, Erik loves to watch sports, cook elaborate meals for his wife and two daughters, garden, and travel whenever he gets the chance.
