Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Jeff Lacoy

A native to western Massachusetts, born and raised in the Pioneer Valley, Jeff has spent most of his life outdoors. Developing a love for all things outside, he began his career working for one of the largest landscaping companies in the area starting in high school, eventually spending several years at Crumpin Fox golf course as part of the grounds crew.

Jeff eventually moved on and started with C.L. Frank & Co (now a division of Bartlett Tree Experts) in 2007, and discovered his true passion; being in, and caring for trees. Quickly developing a deep interest in all things climbing and arboriculture. Jeff studied toward and received his ISA and Massachusetts Certified Arborist and TCIA Certified Tree Care Safety Professional Certifications. Jeff has been promoted to role of Arborist Representative where he will continue his highest level of customer service and care of client's properties. Jeff is an ISA Certified Arborist, who strives to provide a quality service and peace of mind to his customers from beginning to end.

Now living in southern New Hampshire with his wife and three sons, he enjoys hiking, as well as nurturing his children's own interest in the outdoors.
