Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Jesse Holland

A Northeast Tennessee native, Jesse earned an associate degree in Horticulture from Walters State Community College and a bachelor's degree in Sport and Recreation Management from East Tennessee State University. After seven years in the plant health industry working for Tennessee State Parks and Forests, Jesse joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2020. Jesse held roles as Plant Health Care Specialist, Crew Leader, and Arborist Climber prior to becoming an Arborist Representative.

Jesse is an ISA Certified Arborist, he's also ISA Tree Risk Assessment Qualified, a TCIA Tree Care Specialist, a Tennessee HLT pesticide license holder, and has a Certificate of Landscape Management in Tennessee. He is committed to helping clients maintain their landscape, from their newly planted azalea to their hundred-year-old oak trees.

Jesse resides in Chattanooga and in his free time enjoys fishing, reading, and camping.
