Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Joel Spano

Joel grew up in western Howard County where he discovered his love for nature. After obtaining degrees from the University of Maryland, College Park, and Oregon State University, he managed the street tree planting program for Montgomery County. Since 2019 he has been with Bartlett Tree Experts helping clients care for their trees and shrubs.

Joel is a Board-Certified Master Arborist, a Registered Consulting Arborist, a Municipal Specialist, a Maryland Tree Expert, and a qualified Tree Risk Assessor. He is also a member of the International Society of Arboriculture as well as the American Society for Consulting Arborists. The continuing education these certifications mandate help keep Bartlett Arborists up to date with current industry standards.

When not at work you can find Joel putzing around his garden or enjoying the nature of north Baltimore with his wife and son.
