Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Joseph Egolf

Joe developed his love of plants and arboriculture at a young age.

Continuing this passion, he attended Delaware University, where he studied horticulture, arboriculture and plant science, earning his bachelor's degree.

After graduation, Joe studied and worked in all aspects of horticulture. In 2010, he focused his attention on pruning and tree care as a landscape foreman for five years. He then became a certified horticulturalist through the American Society for Horticultural Science in 2011. In 2015, Joe started to develop a growing plant health care program and then became an ISA certified arborist and sales representative for DiSabatino Landscaping & Tree Care in Wilmington, DE.

Joe joined the Bartlett team through a partnership in October 2019. He now takes pride in caring for client's trees throughout New Castle, DE and surrounding areas.

When Joe's not working, he is spending time with his family and friends and tending to his gardens, bonsai trees, and plants.
