Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Robert Neeser

Rob's interest in trees began at an early age where, as a boy scout he spent many hours in the forests of Minnesota and Wisconsin. As an Eagle Scout he worked on building blue bird houses to encourage the repopulation in the northern suburbs. Since then he has spent the last 10 years in the green industry working at two local tree companies before joining Bartlett Tree Experts as an arborist. In his spare time, he camps and fishes with his wife and three daughters.
