Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Robert Uzandenis

Bob was born and raised in Chicago. After earning his Advanced Arborist Training Certificate from Mid-State Technical College in Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin. Bob started in arboriculture in 2012 and acquired well-rounded experience through roles including ground person, plant health care and crew leader as he built his career. He joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2024 as an Arborist Representative.

Bob is an ISA Certified Arborist and licensed Illinois Pesticide Applicator. His focus is to help clients make informed decisions about the preservation and development of their landscape.

In his free time, Bob enjoys coaching youth sports for his two young children. He is also very active himself - he likes to play pickleball, he golfs, plays in a men's basketball league, and competes in amateur strongman competitions. But his favorite hobby is cooking barbeque for his family and friends on weekends.
