Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Greg Beck

Originally from Andover, Massachusetts, Greg grew up spending time in the woods, climbing and surrounded by trees. If you had asked him as a child what he wanted to be when he grew up, he would have replied, "a tree doctor."

Greg remained true to his childhood interests, majoring in Horticulture at Unity College in Maine. During summer breaks, he gained practical experience and, after graduation, he began working full time for a high-end residential arboriculture company in the Greater Boston area. A few years later, he packed his bags and headed to Portland Oregon where he quickly achieved a managerial position with one of Portland's premier landscape companies. While there, he managed multiple internationally recognized award-winning landscapes.

Nine years later, Greg and his wife and daughter returned to Massachusetts and he started his career here at Bartlett. Greg's qualifications and licenses include:

ISA Board Certified Master Arborist

Massachusetts Certified Arborist

Connecticut Licensed Arborist

Tree Risk Assessment Qualified.

Greg looks forward to working with you as your Arborist Representative.
