Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Jason Sokich

Jason grew up in Westchester County and has resided in Pleasantville since 2002. He is a graduate of Fordham University and earned a degree in Economics. After spending nearly two decades in equity trading with Wachovia Capital Markets, Jason pursued his passion for landscapes and joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2017 as an Arborist Representative.

He quickly earned the division's "Rookie of the Year Award" and was selected "Arborist of the Year" in 2022. Jason is also an ISA Certified Arborist and holds an ISA Tree Risk Assessment Qualification. Jason is driven by strong relationships. He prides himself on ensuring that his clients receive top-quality service and helping them achieve their vision for their properties.

Jason enjoys traveling with his family and experiencing different local cuisines. He gets the most gratification from being a father to his twin daughters and celebrating their life's journey and growth with his wife, Pam.
