Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Jesse Johnson II

Jesse Johnson is an Arborist Representative with Bartlett Tree Experts, bringing more than 30 years of experience in the tree care industry. His passion for arboriculture began at age 15 in his high school forestry program in his hometown of Newport, New Hampshire. Jesse joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2011 as the Local Office Safety Coordinator (LOSC) in Austin, Texas, where he served for eight years before transferring to the Hooksett, New Hampshire office in 2021. In 2024, he brought his expertise to the Tallahassee, Florida office, where he continues to help clients care for and preserve their trees.

As an ISA Certified Arborist, Jesse is dedicated to providing science-based solutions that promote the health, safety, and beauty of trees and landscapes. He values building lasting relationships with clients and helping them make informed decisions about their properties.

Outside of work, Jesse enjoys woodworking especially turning wooden bowls along with fishing, smoking meats, cooking, and riding his Harley-Davidson motorcycle.
