Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Mark Inzano

Mark has over 25 years of experience in the horticultural industry. In addition to working in management positions for major landscaping companies, he has extensive experience in public gardens and nonprofit organizations. He worked as a gardener at the Hillwood Estate Museum and Garden in Washington, DC, and later returned to New Jersey, where he served as the Superintendent of Horticulture for the Somerset County Park Commission.

His accomplishments there included being awarded the Award of Garden Excellence by the World Federation of Rose Societies. Prior to joining Bartlett, Mark held the position of Manager of Horticulture for the Morris County Park Commission, managing the Frelinghuysen Arboretum, Willowood, and Bamboo Brook Environmental Outdoor Education Center. Mark is a New Jersey Licensed Tree Expert and New Jersey Licensed Pesticide Applicator.
