

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Colton Aaron

Colton has a degree in environmental science from Shepherd University. He found his love of caring for trees and landscapes during college while working for the National Park Service at the Antietam National Battlefield. After graduation, Colton joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2021 as an Arborist Climber. As his career advanced, he also held positions as Crew Leader, Plant Health Care Specialist, and Local Office Safety Coordinator prior becoming an Arborist Representative.

An ISA Certified Arborist, Colton is also a Certified Tree Safety Professional, a Tree Care Specialist and holds a Maryland Tree Experts license. He uses his knowledge and experience to provide sound recommendations that help property owners make informed decisions to care for their trees and shrubs.

When he isn't working, Colton enjoys spending time outdoors and with his growing family. He and his wife are parents to a little boy.
