

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Devin Taydus

Devin is an ISA Certified Arborist who has gained experience in the Pittsburgh-East office of Bartlett Tree Experts as a Plant Healthcare Specialist, Climber and Ground Person. He is excited to step in to his new role as full-time Arborist Representative in the Pittsburgh-West office. Devin's goal is to provide excellent customer service as he works to improve and maintain the health of his clients' landscapes.

Devin earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Biology from Clarion University of PA. While at university, his first involvement in the green industry was working at a local greenhouse and nursery. He also conducted research in the Allegheny National Forest. This is when plant healthcare became his primary career focus.

Devin enjoys hiking, woodworking and traveling. He is eager to get involved in his new community and looks forward to meeting others that share his great passion for the outdoors.
