SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Dylan Kerl

Dylan has been with Bartlett Tree Experts since 2013. A second generation arborist, he grew up with trees and plants as part of the family business. A childhood spent in nature led to studies in outdoor leadership at Warren Wilson College, where he worked for the campus tree crew tending to the college's urban forest.

Bartlett's holistic approach to scientific tree care motivates Dylan to be versatile when it comes to arboriculture. He prides himself on being a well-rounded arborist and enjoys providing comprehensive solutions to maintain the health and improve the beauty of his clients' properties.

Dylan is a Certified Arborist with over a decade of experience in trees. He serves Amherst, Nelson and Rockbridge Counties as well as Waynesboro and Stuarts Draft and is excited to work with both new and established Bartlett customers.

When he's not working, Dylan loves to play soccer, camp, float the river and get outside with his wife Lindsey and his sons Oakley, Heron and Dawken.
