Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Forest Bowen III

Forest Bowen has been in the Arboriculture industry ever since he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Forest Resource Management from Virginia Tech in 2000. He is one of our Board Certified Master Arborists. He earned that credential in 2008, and has continued to maintain the rigorous standards associated with it ever since. Forest grew up in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia which helped establish a love for the natural world, spending many summers enjoying Smith Mountain Lake outside Roanoke Virginia. Forest also has a Tree Risk Assessment Qualification. He joined Bartlett after being employed with Wood Acres Tree Specialists for 17 years.
