Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Frank Kapple

Frank was born and raised in the Northern Suburbs of Chicago, Illinois. He currently resides in Minooka, IL with his wife Linda, his daughter Margaret, and son Owen. After graduating from Illinois State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Economics, Frank worked twelve years in the field of Turf Management and has over twenty-five years of experience in the landscape industry. He is currently licensed by the State of Illinois as a Commercial Pesticide Applicator. In 2009 Frank started working in the tree care field and in 2012 became an ISA Certified Arborist. Frank spent two years previously working with Bartlett Tree Experts as a Plant Health Care Technician and has four year experience as an Arborist Sales Representative. Frank is an avid sports fan and especially enjoys cheering on his children at their sporting events. He enjoys many outdoor activities and appreciates any available opportunity to go fishing.
