

Jason Sokich

Jason brings over 20 years of sales and management experience to our Elmsford, New York office.

He is a 1995 graduate of Fordham University with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. His early career was in the equity trading services and capital markets industries with Wachovia Capital Markets. Jason was the youngest member of his trading division to be promoted to Institutional Floor Broker.

Embracing his admiration and respect for nature along with his passion for the creative, Jason left the trading floor behind and managed intricate and varied landscapes as an account manager for a national landscape and facility management service company. He was a recognized leader by his colleagues and clients in the industry.

Jason is driven by strong relationships ensuring that his clients receive top quality service and helping them to make educated decisions on how best to maintain their landscape investment. Joining Bartlett allowed him to improve his skill set and work diligently to meet and exceed client expectations in overseeing their landscape environment.

He is ISA Certified and holds his Tree Risk Assessment Qualification.

Managing a territory that is also his hometown allows Jason to share his knowledge, passion, and expertise with his community.
