Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Joseph Colella

Joe was raised on Long Island, where for as long as he can remember he has been involved in many outdoor activities. So, it's very appropriate that he chose a career in the green industry. Joe studied Ecosystems and Human Impact at Stony Brook University, and in arboriculture, he regularly uses the knowledge he gained about the environment we live in.

He has eight years of experience in Plant Healthcare, landscape planting and tree climbing. He is an ISA Certified Arborist and a New York State (NYS) Certified Applicator. Joe joined Bartlett Tree Experts in November 2019. As an Arborist Representative, he brings a vibrant energy to caring for clients' properties.

Joe enjoys his down time by kayaking, fishing, and walking his dog, Teddy.
