

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Kristopher McDonald

Kris studied kinesiology at Queens University. He started his career in 2001 at Ozzies Forestry in Kingston, Ontario. In 2007, he joined Arbre Care Tree Service, where he gained experience as a groundsman, climber and lift operator. Kris then moved on to Phillips Tree Care, performing the same scope of work. He also added consulting to his job description.

Kris moved to Vancouver in 2013, working as an Arborist Representative for a large tree company. He joined the Bartlett team in April 2017 as a Field Arborist in our Delta, BC location. In February 2018, he became an Arborist Representative for Bartlett's Kelowna office.

He is an ISA Certified Arborist and has a Tree Risk Assessment Qualification.

Kris is very excited to call Kelowna his home. He looks forward to providing his residential and commercial clients with timely and scientific-based tree care advice for many years to come.
