Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Laura Sarzaba

Laura Sarzaba is an ISA Certified Arborist with a Tree Risk Assessment Qualification and holds an Associate of Applied Science degree in horticulture from SUNY Farmingdale. She has been with Bartlett since 2013 and was one of our Plant Health Care Specialists in Westchester County before becoming an Arborist Representative. Laura loves helping her clients with their trees. She has a keen interest in plant and tree identification and enjoys the science, problem-solving, and teamwork that come with the job.

Laura is a member of the New York State Arborists and the Metro Hort Group. In addition to her horticulture studies, she holds a BA in sociology and theater arts from Mount Holyoke College. She first began working in the world of tree care in 2005 in marketing and communications and was inspired by her colleagues to return to school and pursue a career in the field. In her free time, Laura enjoys climbing trees, exploring new restaurants in the city, and spending time with her family.

Laura serves clients in the towns of Armonk, Port Chester, Purchase, Rye, and Rye Brook.
