Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Mark Irwin

Mark Irwin loves the outdoors and has a strong interest in trees and plants. After graduating from Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Mark spent many rewarding years training law enforcement and military dog teams. In 2012, Mark took a position of Groundsman with Bartlett Tree Experts in Toronto, ON. Over the next five years, he gained immense knowledge and skill working beside his colleagues learning the various aspects of Production. Working his way up through the company, he soon became a Plant Healthcare Technician and Shop Foreman. Since the spring of 2018 Mark has been working as a Sales Representative, a natural fit given his accomplishments. Mark is an ISA certified arborist and is eager to share his knowledge to anyone who will listen.
