Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Mathew Rotunda

Mathew originally joined Bartlett as an Arborist Ground Person. From there, he quickly advanced in his career to become an Arborist Climber and Plant Healthcare Specialist.

Mathew has been very active in the Ridgefield and Redding communities with thousands of hours spent in the field with crews working in those areas. His current position is local Arborist Representative. He continues to service the towns of Ridgefield and Redding

He takes pride in his work and strives to exceed his clients' expectations with an emphasis on customer service.

Mathew is a native of Fairfield County, living in Monroe for most of his life. In his spare time, he enjoys the outdoors, traveling, and cooking. He loves spending time with his wife, Monique, and their two dogs.
