Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Matt Copeland

Matt grew up in the New Jersey Pine Barrens, where his passion for arboriculture began at a young age. He has a Bachelor of Science in Environmental and Natural Resource Economics from West Virginia University. During his time at WVU Matt developed a knowledge of tree biology and entomology. Matt joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2018 and held the position of Plant Health Care Specialist prior to Arborist Representative.

An ISA Certified Arborist, Matt is also a member of the New Jersey Chapter of the ISA, and a TCIA Certified Tree Care Professional. Matt prides himself in sharing his knowledge and experience with clients on a personal level to help them make well-informed decisions to maintain the health and beauty of their trees and shrubs.

In his free time, Matt loves golfing, riding quads, and spending time with family and friends. He lives in Medford Lakes.
