Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Nathan Trull

Nathan Trull is a native of North Carolina, who grew up just down the road in Apex. An outdoor enthusiast, Nathan pursued his childhood interests and earned a Bachelor of Science in Horticultural Science with a minor in Forest Management from North Carolina State University. He developed a passion for arboriculture and, after graduating in 2015, Nathan began his career at Bartlett Tree Experts. He has advanced within the company holding positions as a Groundperson, Arborist Climber and Crew Leader prior to becoming an Arborist Representative.

An International Society of Arboriculture (ISA) Certified Arborist, Nathan is also Tree Risk Assessment Qualified, and has a North Carolina pesticide applicator license. Nathan leverages his knowledge and field experience to provide clients with quality, personable service and the highest level of professional care.

In his free time, Nathan and his family love spending time outside playing sports, hiking, working around their small farm, and being with friends. He and his wife Emily have two boys, Sawyer and Corbin, and live in Liberty, NC. At work and at home, Nathan is dedicated to helping others—sharing his knowledge, time, and energy to assist clients, coworkers and friends.
