Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Pete Oksen

Peter Oksen, a Massachusetts native, has lived in Charlotte since 2012. He joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2017 and advanced steadily to Arborist Representative. He progressed from grounds man to climber to crew leader gaining personal experience during that time in all aspects of tree care, including pruning, soil care and disease & pest management. He also served as the Local Office Safety Coordinator in Charlotte for two and a half years.

An ISA certified arborist, Peter services the Rock Hill, South Carolina area. When it comes to arboriculture he loves that every day is different and presents new challenges; no two trees are the same. Peter enjoys meeting and working with clients, old and new, and takes pride in making trees happy and healthy for future generations.

Peter's favorite tree is the Post oak. He has a passion for the outdoors, with hobbies such as mountain biking and woodworking. Peter also enjoys spending time with his wife and two dogs.
