Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Sophia Rodbell

Sophia holds a bachelor's degree in Environmental Studies from Roanoke College. Her early career includes a position as a Project Manager and Urban Forester where she assisted several major US cities and towns with comprehensive tree inventories. She is an ISA Certified Arborist, a Municipal Specialist with a Tree Risk Assessment Qualification, a Municipal Forestry Institute Graduate, and is a Council Member of New York State Urban Forestry. She joined Bartlett in 2021 as an Arborist Representative.

Sophia is passionate about Urban Forestry and creating connections between people and their trees. She enjoys providing her clients with thoroughly researched recommendations to keep them up to date on new topics impacting their properties.

She has traveled across the United States and is happy to have made a home in Fairfield County with her husband and dog. She loves trying out new hobbies, in the past year she has tried her hand at becoming a pottery thrower, botanist, pilates guru, and spin class champion.
