Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Tyler Jones

Tyler's career in arboriculture began in 2011 working with Bartlett Tree Experts in a summer internship. He graduated with an Associate degree in Applied Science for Urban Forestry from Mid-State Technical College in 2015.

His extensive background as a production arborist provides the foundational skills for his arboricultural assessments, training and client interaction. Tyler has worked in Colorado, North Carolina, Wisconsin, and now in Pennsylvania gaining knowledge about native trees and shrubs in these locations.

Tyler is Tree Risk Assessment qualified and he is an ISA Certified Arborist.

As an Arborist Representative, he takes pride in providing clients with a high level of customer care along with the combined expertise of his Bartlett team. In addition, he enjoys working with clients to determine the goals that will increase the safety and value of their property.

Tyler enjoys spending family time with his wife and dog. His hobbies include skiing, playing lacrosse, and camping.
