Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

William Vitagliano

Will chose a career in Arboriculture after being inspired with a passion for trees while working in forestry, natural resource management and environmental education in the Catskill mountains. In 2016, he joined Bartlett Tree Experts in Elmsford, New York. Will advanced quickly holding positions including Groundperson, Arborist Climber and Plant Health Care Specialist before continuing to build his experience and knowledge at other jobs in the industry. Then, after over five years as an arborist inspector at the Central Park Conservancy, Will rejoined the Elmsford office in 2024 as an Arborist Representative.

An ISA Certified Arborist, Will is also Tree Risk Assessment Qualified. He enjoys utilizing Bartlett's exceptional resources, science-based tools and techniques to serve his clients' needs for tree preservation and care.

Will likes to spend time outdoors exploring forests, specimen trees, as well as hiking, biking, and fly fishing.
