

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Zachary Abear

Zack graduated from Danville Area Community College in 2015 with an Associate Degree in Science and Arts and a Certification in Horticulture. He chose a career in the green industry and has advanced steadily building experience in several roles including working in management at a turf care company, and as a client representative at a high-end, Northshore landscaping company. Zack joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2022 as an Arborist Representative.

An ISA Certified Arborist, Zack is dedicated to helping his clients maintain the health and beauty of their trees and shrubs. He is involved in industry groups, including ISA, IAA, ILCA, and NALP. Zack also serves on a committee board for the Illinois Landscape Contractors Association Young Professionals Group.

In his free time, Zack is an avid sports fan who enjoys playing golf, snowboarding, and spending time with his wife, Maddie, and their four children.
