

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Christian Fitzpatrick

After graduating from Hereford High School, Christian enlisted in the U.S. Army where he served both stateside and overseas. He lives in New Freedom, PA with his wife, Shannon, and two children, Chase, 8, and Olivia, 2. Having been involved in tree care since 2009 and attracted to Bartlett's scientific approach to tree care, Christian joined the Baltimore team in October 2015 as an Arborist Representative. His passion and expertise of landscape plants has driven a commendable arboriculture career with Bartlett Tree Experts. In conjunction with inspecting, diagnosing and treating urban landscapes, Christian is the Local Manager of the York, Lancaster, and Harrisburg, PA offices. He is licensed with the MD Department of Natural Resources, Certified Treecare Safety Professional, PA Pesticide Applicator, Certified Arborist, and Certified Tree Risk Assessor with the International Society of Arboriculture.
