Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Derek Furry

After completing the Penn State Mont Alto forestry program, Derek joined Bartlett Tree Experts in May 2011. He first worked in our Nantucket, MA office learning techniques for the wide range of services Bartlett provides.

He has held various job positions at Bartlett as foreman, plant health care specialist and safety coordinator. Derek volunteered to help others along the east coast by providing storm support to Bartlett offices in Georgia, Tennessee, Virginia, New York, and Connecticut. He has a comprehensive understanding of all phases of tree care. Derek is now an integral asset to Bartlett and our Chambersburg, PA team as an Arborist Representative.

He is a licensed pesticide applicator in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and West Virginia. He also is an International Society of Arboriculture certified arborist and holds a Tree Risk Assessment Qualification. Derek is a member of the Rotary Club of Waynesboro, Washington County and Greencastle-Antrim Chambers of Commerce and is on the Penn State Mont Alto forest technology advisory board.

With his true passion for helping others, Derek appreciates how his work at Bartlett Tree Experts allows him to make this passion a reality.

Derek and his wife are the proud parents of two boys who fill them with joy and excitement. They enjoy spending time together hiking, hosting cookouts and televised sporting events, motorsports, and embracing the outdoors.
