Doug Bocchino

Doug has always had a passion for nature. At age 12 he began volunteering at a local orchard. His passion for trees led him to immerse himself there for eight years. Doug began a two-season internship with Bartlett Tree Experts when he was 20. He graduated from Delaware Valley University with a BS in Ornamental Horticulture and a minor in Environmental Science. Doug was also inducted into the National Agricultural Honor Society. He joined Bartlett in 2016.

Doug is a New Jersey Certified Tree Expert, an ISA Certified Arborist and a Certified Treecare Safety Professional. He is passionate about using his knowledge to help clients make informed decisions to maintain the health and beauty of their properties.

A New Jersey native, Doug grew up in Randolph and continues to reside in Morris County. He enjoys hiking, camping, kayaking, and mountain biking with his family.
