Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Douglas K. Williams

Doug grew up in Fairfield, worked as a tree climber in college during the summers, and has always enjoyed the outdoors.

After graduating from Fairfield University and spending four years with DuPont, Doug came to Bartlett and has worked as an Arborist Representative and Local Manager in Fairfield and Westport. He enjoys skiing, competitive tennis, mountain biking, and anything outdoors.

Doug is a member of the Fairfield Rotary Club and the Fairfield Beach Club. He is past president of the Connecticut Tree Protective Associate, the state professional organization of arborists with 800 members and past president of the Connecticut Environmental Committee. He is a CT licensed arborist, ISA certified arborist, and certified tree safety professional.

Doug lives in Easton with his wife Deidre and has two grown girls Rachel and Caroline.
