SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Jason C. Heizer

Jason Heizer has been involved in Arboriculture since 1996 when he first worked for the U.S. Forest Service in the George Washington and Jefferson National Forests as a Wilderness Ranger. While finishing his Bachelor of Science in Forestry from Virginia Tech, he realized that he wanted to pursue a career in Urban Forestry. In 1998, Jason began his career with Bartlett in Shenandoah Valley, continued on to manage the Roanoke office, and in 2005 moved to the Hampton Roads area with his wife and three kids.

He is a Board Certified Master Arborist with the International Society of Arboriculture. During the past 19 years, Jason has served the arboriculture community as an adjunct professor at Virginia Western Community College, Vice President of Trees, President of the Hampton Roads Tree Care Association, and is currently serving on the board of directors for the Virginia Beach Beautification Commission and the Mid-Atlantic International Society of Arboriculture.
