SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Jason C. Heizer

Jason has been involved in arboriculture since 1996 when he first worked as a Wilderness Ranger for the U.S. Forest Service in the George Washington and Jefferson National. He has a bachelor of science in Forestry from Virginia Tech and decided to pursue an occupation in Urban Forestry. He began his career with Bartlett Tree Experts in Shenandoah Valley in 1998. He moved to the Hampton Roads area in 2005 and continued with the company. Prior to serving as the Local Manager in Williamsburg, he held the same position in Bartlett's Roanoke office.

Jason is a Board Certified Master Arborist with the International Society of Arboriculture (ISA). He serves the areas around Chesapeake, Gloucester and Williamsburg.

During the past 24 years, Jason has served the arboriculture community as an adjunct professor at Virginia Western Community College, Vice President of Trees, and President of the Hampton Roads Tree Care Association. Jason is currently serving on the board of directors for the Virginia Beach Beautification Commission and the Mid-Atlantic International Society of Arboriculture. He is married with 3 children.
