Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Kevin Carr

Kevin Carr, Division Manager at Bartlett Tree Experts, works in the Pacific NW region out of the Lynnwood, WA office.

Kevin Carr has been involved in tree care for over 30 years. He began working for a tree care company in high school and has performed all of the production tree care roles and has been an Arborist Representative in multiple Bartlett offices and served as Local Office Manager for 20 years.

Kevin is from Boston, MA and obtained BS Arboriculture and MS Forest Pathology degrees from the University of Massachusetts. His professional interests include plant health care, plant identification and tree risk assessment.

Kevin is a Board Certified Master Arborist, Certified Tree Safety Professional, Qualified Tree Risk Assessor, and is a licensed applicator with Oregon, Washington, and Idaho states.

In his personal life Kevin sails his wooden sailboat, gardens and practices plant identification and learns more about the geology and natural history of the Pacific NW region.
