SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Michael Nugent

Growing up in Richmond and Vancouver, Mike always appreciated the beautiful native and ornamental trees that our region is able to support. It was while studying Plant Science at UBC where Mike became passionate about trees. Since university, Mike has been propagating, growing, and collecting ornamental trees while working in commercial nurseries, farms and in the landscaping industry. Mike has been with Bartlett Tree Experts since 2012 as an apprentice climber and plant health care technician and is excited to be promoting the highest standards of tree care in his home town. Mike will bring his diverse experience and knowledge to the forefront when assessing and making recommendations for tree and shrub care in the South Vancouver area.
