Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Michael Santoro

Michael spent much of his youth playing in and amongst the trees of the forest behind his childhood home in Townsend, MA. This time undoubtedly laid the foundation for his love of trees and future career. Michael's thirst for knowledge and love of trees led him to the Stockbridge School of Agriculture and The University of Massachusetts - Amherst, where he achieved an associate's degree in arboriculture and bachelor's degree in urban forestry, respectively. Michael has worked in all aspects of arboriculture for the past 16 years, and enjoys sharing his knowledge with clients. Michael joined Matthew R Foti Tree service as a climber in 2008 and is excited to continue providing high quality service as an arborist representative.

Michael currently resides in Groton, MA with his wife, Sandra.
