Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Patrick J. Burke

Patrick Burke first became involved in the tree care industry while working with the Forest and Park Service when he was attending Paul Smiths College and Colorado State University pursuing a degree in Forestry. He has been involved with both arboriculture and horticulture ever since. While working in arboriculture in NY State, Pat became an ISA Certified Arborist and joined Bartlett Tree Experts as an Arborist/Representative in 1994 in the Ridgewood, NJ office. He is an member of the International Society of Arboriculture (ISA), and is a NJ Certified Tree Expert. Pat enjoys giving garden club speeches, caring for trees, and planning for local park land, as well as hiking in local parks and forests.
