SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Richard M. Croft Jr.

Richard M. Croft Jr. has been a Bartlett Tree Experts Arborist for 29 years, giving him the knowledge and understanding to make him a well-rounded expert in his field.

Working at his uncle's nursery in Vernon, NY at an early age, Rich gained an appreciation for trees and shrubs. He earned an A.O.S. Degree from Morrisville College in Arboriculture, Urban Forestry, and Ornamental Horticulture.

Joining Bartlett as a ground person, he advanced to a climber, plant health care specialist, a supervising foreman and then earning his current position as an Arborist Representative.

Rich is a member of the International Society of Arboriculture and is also a Certified Arborist.

Married with four young children, he spends his free time coaching and playing sports with them. He enjoys skiing and camping with his family.

A key to Rich's success is he's ability to work diligently with clients to exceed their expectations in all aspects of their tree and shrub care needs each and every day. Rich is committed to helping his clients find the solutions they need while being part of the most talented team in the industry.
