SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Robert D. Day

Robert Day is a North Carolina native and an area resident since 1986. He has been a Certified Arborist since 2001 and a Bartlett employee since 2005. Robert became a Board Certified Master Arborist in 2011 and assists Cary area residents with their tree and shrub care. He is a graduate of North Carolina State University with a Bachelor of Science in Landscape Horticulture. Robert enjoys hiking, fishing, golf, and most other outdoor sports. Much of his spare time is spent coaching youth sports including baseball and football. Robert is married with three children and enjoys partnering with his clients in the preservation and enhancement of their trees and shrubs.
