SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Robert Dill

Bob is a Turf Specialist and manages the Turf Department for the Bartlett Division in Ashland, MA. His career began at Franconia Golf Course, as he advanced to foreman while attending Holyoke Community College and UMASS. He was later promoted to Assistant Superintendent. His turf resume includes positions at Ludlow C.C. and Hopedale C.C. as Golf Course Superintendent. He was involved in many projects ranging from tree management and planting programs, sand trap and golf tree reconstruction, and putting green construction. In 1997, Bob joined Cedarlawn to manage the Turf Division. In addition to his turf expertise, Bob has 12 years as an Arborist climber with extensive pruning, landscape, and Plant Health Care experience. His strong passion for the turf profession has enabled him to share his expertise and provide top quality service to his clients throughout the years.
