

BARTLETT
TREE EXPERTS

SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Scott Tapp

Scott Tapp has been in the tree care industry for over 30 years. He started his career at Bartlett Tree Experts as a Plant Health Care Technician and was also a Tree Crew Foreman prior to becoming an Arborist Representative. His interest in Bartlett's scientific approach to tree and shrub care led him to acquire a number of industry credentials as his career progressed.

Scott is a Certified Arborist with the International Society of Arboriculture (ISA). Additionally, he is a New Jersey Licensed Tree Expert, is Tree Risk Assessment Qualified (TRAQ) and is a TCIA Certified Tree Care Safety Professional. Scott serves clients in Mercer and southern Somerset counties.

An active member of the tree care industry, Scott is a past-President of the New Jersey Arborists/International Society of Arboriculture (NJAISA) and continues to be involved representing New Jersey on the Council of Representatives with the ISA. Scott has also co-chaired New Jersey Tree Climbing Championships since 2006. In his free time, Scott is an avid fan of the New York Yankees and NASCAR. He enjoys attending minor league baseball games with his family and friends, and trout fishing when time permits.
